COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

Dear ...:

Your allusion to tax equality between private enterprise and cooperatives has received a tremendous amount of attention by the Senate Finance Committee when the last tax bill came on for action in the last session.

A bill on this subject would originate in the House of Representatives, after which it would come to the Senate for further action.

I fully appreciate the necessity for equalizing the tax burden so that no one citizen or group of citizens will have an undue competitive advantage. I have given considerable attention to this matter and will certainly endeavor to follow through.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
