ROBO: TAX INSURANCE COMPANIES

Dear:

We shall not actually come to grips with the insurance tax bill until hearings have been concluded before the Senate Finance Committee and that group prepares to consider modifications before this measure comes to the floor.

A great many insurance representatives have been in Washington to see me from large companies and small, and certain it is that before ultimate action is taken either by the Committee or the Senate every controversial aspect of this measure will have been thoroughly ventilated.

I am glad to have your comments and will give them good attention.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
