Dear

I appreciate your comments relating to reported recent efforts to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

As a part of the regular procedure of business with regard to all standing committees of the House of Representatives, on the first day of the 87th Congress the House unanimously adopted the rules of the Committee on Un-American Activities, thereby reestablishing the committee as a duly constituted standing committee.

You may be assured I would not support any effort to abolish this committee.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
