

Everett McKinley Dirksen
Illinois

United States Senate
Minority Leader

ROBO: PIGGYBACK
April 4, 1961

..., 1961

...
...
...

Dear ...:

First let me tell you that my relationship with individuals and companies in every field of transportation has always been a felicitous one and I try to see clearly the equities in every situation where the problems of sharp competition come into place.

I incline to the general view that a balance between competitive forms of transportation can be worked out so that all may live and prosper and this general thesis I shall continue to pursue.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen