Dear -----:

I appreciate your interest in Senate Joint Resolution 18, which I introduced to establish a Youth Temperance Education Week. The proposal is still pending before my Subcommittee on National Charters, Holidays, and Celebrations.

I made every effort to bring this proposal before the full Judiciary Committee for consideration before the adjournment of the last Session. However, I met with no favorable response from the Majority members for a Committee study of the resolution, which is necessary before it can be reported to the full Senate for consideration.

You may be certain that I will continue to work on this at every opportunity, and we will endeavor to get the job done this year. It was good to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
