

EVERETT MCKINLEY DIRKSEN
ILLINOIS

MINORITY LEADER

United States Senate

Campaign Funds

September 28, 1967

Dear :

At a time when our deficit grows larger by the day and the President proposes an increase in taxes, it would seem to me that asking the taxpayers to finance Federal election campaigns would be highly irresponsible.

The entire Republican membership of the Senate Finance Committee voted against this legislation.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen