

United States Senate

TUITION TAX CREDIT

April 13, 1967

Dear :

Last year every Republican member of the Senate voted to provide a tax credit for tuition payments but we were unable to overcome the heavy Democratic majority and the proposal was defeated by ten votes.

Later this year during discussion on a general tax revision bill this may be presented again and you can be sure that we will do the best we can to get the job done.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen
