Dear :

Lengthy hearings over a period of years and a vast amount of work has already been done in the hope that a satisfactory pension bill for World War I veterans might be developed, and it is entirely possible that a suitable proposal can be developed and approved during the present Session of the Congress.

Be assured that it will have good attention.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen