May 12, 1964

---------
---------
---------

Dear ------:

This will acknowledge receipt of your recent communication concerning possible changes in the treatment of copyrighted material used for educational purposes.

While there is no such legislation pending in either the House or Senate at this time, the Library of Congress is in the process of drafting and revising the present copyright laws. However, there is little chance the study will be completed in time for consideration during this session of Congress.

I do appreciate having the benefit of your observations and will have them in mind when this does come on for action.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen