Dear:

The so-called situs picketing, or secondary boycott proposal, may be considered in the House of Representatives at an early date. If and when it comes to the Senate Floor, you may be sure that it will have thoroughgoing consideration. These are but some of the highly controversial matters which will come before this session of the Congress.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen