June 30, 1967

Dear:

As you know by now, the Congress has approved legislation to extend the draft act for an additional four years after making some changes and modifications in the Act.

This question received extensive attention and consideration by the Congress and every effort was made to come up with a program that was as fair and as equitable as possible.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen