Dear . . . . . . . .:

I, too, am and have been concerned over the pollution of air and your letter will be kept in mind when further action is taken in the study of this problem.

In past Congresses I have introduced and co-sponsored legislation in an attempt to at least alleviate some of the problems and some legislation has been enacted. The Clean Air Act was passed in the 90th Congress.

Sincerely,

Everett McKinley Dirksen